STATE DEPARTMENT FOR HIGHER EDUCATION AND RESEARCH

ANNOUNCEMENT

APPLICATIONS FOR THE SECOND CYCLE OF 2023-2024 QUEEN ELIZABETH COMMONWEALTH SCHOLARSHIPS ARE NOW OPEN

The Ministry is in receipt of communication from the Embassy of Kenya in the United Kingdom announcing the opening of the second cycle of 2023-2024 Queen Elizabeth Commonwealth Scholarships.

The Queen Elizabeth Commonwealth scholarships (QECS) offer fully funded Master's scholarships to commonwealth citizens. Successful candidates can travel to a different country where they can study a variety of courses and benefit from the expertise provided by leading universities. Developing new skills, gaining a qualification and experiencing life in another country benefits both the individual and their home country.

Eight (8) fully funded Master's scholarships are available hosted by member institutions in countries across the Commonwealth including Fiji, Ghana, Mauritius, Papua New Guinea, Samoa, South Africa, Sri Lanka and Vanuatu.

Further details of the scholarships, including eligibility, host universities and details on how to apply are available on the ACU website

Applications close on 24 May 2024 at 16.00 (UTC+1)
